What we see

photography & words

Light recognises other light natures way

Bricks & Mortar

Skin & Flowers

Grow where you're planted encapsulated bloom

Let go...

Reflection of the softness in you

Remember to look up sky Elements

When did you last soak in a rainbow?

WISDOM
FOR PEACE

Always the simple things...

Heart Feels

soul speak is loud in the pause of life weeds turn into wishes the moon holds your dreams you create your environment

If you come across brick walls simply turn, take another route

Beauty exists on all journeys

Just place one foot after the other

stand still only to pause before moving forward never back

The road can stretch for miles take in the beauty on the way

Light exists beyond darker clouds she couldn't speak out loud so she spoke in words on paper and then released every depth she couldn't previously grasp

Release written in ink

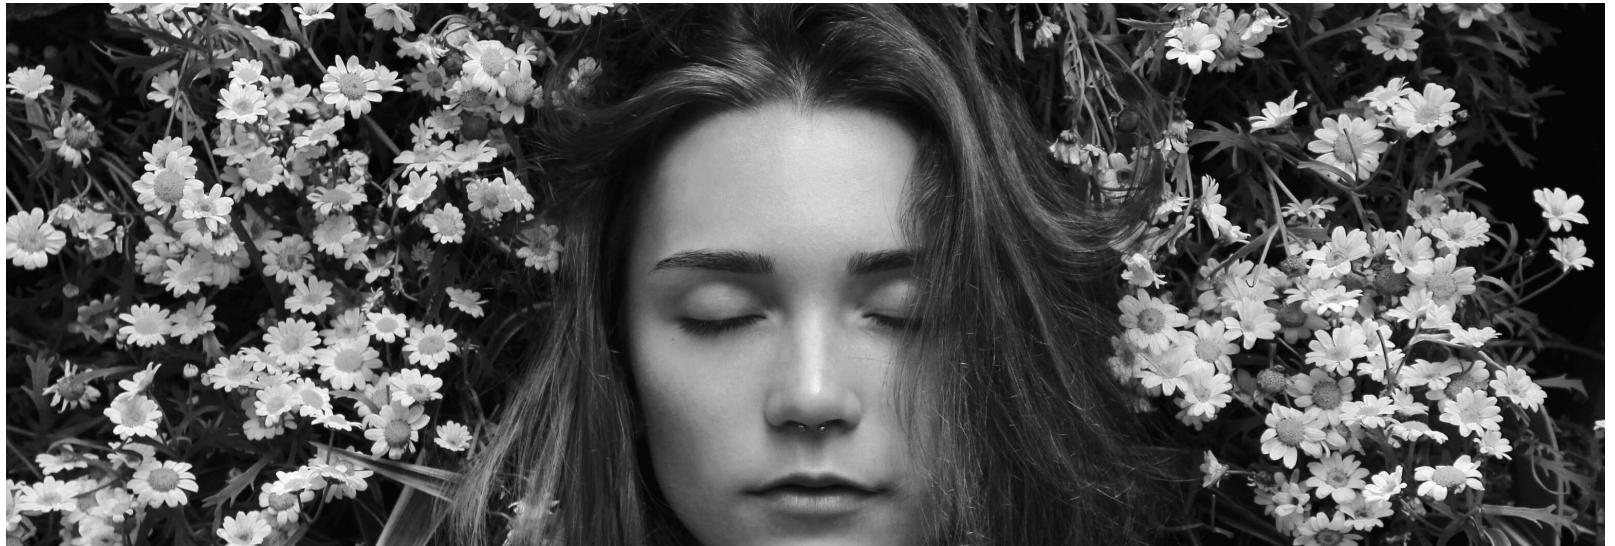

The Pauses

capturing feels

Everything has beauty
But not everyone can see it

Reality in its truest form celebrate all that you are beautiful soul person you sight and insight

use your eyes to see but use your heart to feel the sight within soul heart

Pamper her...love her

You are the light you seek

SHINE

water Elements

water-emotions

you are made with the majority of water the stirrings you feel are the ripples of knowledge that you already possess when in darker waters, remember your light, it will guide you back home home, the foundation of who you are create what you want to see in the world

It takes time

JUST BE

to become a butterfly

Self-love

if you need to rest, then rest

Home is you

buildings contain a light the occupants live inside your body is your building and your light is within

What makes you happy?

Fragile Beauty

makes the most out of one day

A black and white photograph of a person standing on a hill at night, holding a flashlight that illuminates the sky. The sky is filled with stars and the Milky Way galaxy. The person is silhouetted against the light from the flashlight. The text "Share your light" is written in a white, cursive font across the middle of the image.

Share your light

She's a dreamer
a seeker of all that's good in the world she creates a fairy tale with her own rules she's a goddess, a queen of her own castle

Her castle
